

Minister of State and Member of Parliament for North West Clarendon, the Honourable Micheal Stern unveils the official sign along with Mr. Eric Green, Board Chairman at Alston High at the recent Opening of the Scientific Research Council's Biodigester System (BST) at the Alston High School in Clarendon. Present also in the photograph are Executive Director of the SRC Dr. Audia Barnett (1st left) and Dr. Maria Smith of the Jamaica National Commission for UNESCO.

Process Development Officer at the Scientific Research Council, Mrs. Jodi Dunn, explains process of the biodigester system to (from left) Mr. Headley Cross, Principal of Alston High; Mr. Headley Frater of the Ministry of Industry, Investment & Commerce; Dr. Maria Smith of UNESCO; and Team Leader of the Popularization Unit, Mrs. Doreen Dietrich; Executive Director of SRC, Dr. Audia Barnett and Manager of the Information Services Division, SRC, Mr. Hawthorne Watson at the Official opening of the Alston High School Biodigester System constructed by the Scientific Research Council and funded by the Jamaica National Commission for UNESCO.

Coordinator of the Science and Technology Education Unit at the Scientific Research Council, Mrs. Kofiann Reynolds presents a gift to Liandra Ricketts of Kilsyth Primary, National Young Inventors Competition winner.