

The 2010 Ernesto Illy Trieste Science Prize (TSP) NOMINATION FORM

Nominations for the 2010 Ernesto Illy Trieste Science Prize are invited in:
Renewable energies for environmentally sustainable industrial technologies

Information about the candidate

Name and SURNAME of the candidate
Position/Title
Date/Place of Birth
Address of Institution (not private address)
Current Nationality
Phone – Fax – E-mail

Information about the proposer

Name and SURNAME of the proposer
Position/Title
Address
Phone – Fax – E-mail

Documents/material required for the nomination

- Suggested citation (no more than 20 words) in the event that the nominee is selected for the prize;
- Supporting statement of about 200 words summarizing the scientific achievements of the nominee;
- 5-6 page narrative write-up of the nominee highlighting his/her major scientific accomplishments;
- A brief professional curriculum vitae;
- A complete list of publications;
- A list and copies of not more than 20 of his/her most significant publications;
- Information on previous awards, honours, recognition received by the nominee.

NB: Individuals who have received the Nobel Prize, the Tokyo/Kyoto Prize, the Crafoord Prize and the Abel Prize are not eligible for the Ernesto Illy Trieste Science Prize.

Date

Proposer's signature

DEADLINE: 15 MAY 2010
The form should be typewritten in English

- When submitting this nomination electronically, please (1) save this file under the nominee's name in the format "SURNAME_Initial.doc" (eg "DOE_J.doc" if the candidate's name is John DOE) and send it to prizes@twas.org. (2) Since we also need to have your signature on file, please then print out this page, sign it and fax it to +39 040 2240-7387.
- If you opt for postal submission, print out the completed nomination form, sign it and send it by post to: Prof. Mohamed H.A. Hassan, TWAS Executive Director, Ernesto Illy Trieste Science Prize nominations, ICTP Campus, Strada Costiera 11, 34151 Trieste, Italy.

www.twas.org

www.illy.com